

Changes to Council membership

New appointments by the Minister of Commerce to the Testing Laboratory Registration Council have been made this year and other new members have been appointed by the Council. Long serving members Dr John Buckingham, Dr Brian Linehan, Dr Derek Breton retired from the Council, and Miriam Dean QC, Richard Dimmock and Graham Robertson were re-appointed. The Council operates as International Accreditation New Zealand and has a fully-owned subsidiary, Telarc Limited.

The full Council membership is:

Dr Geoffrey Page, Chief Executive Officer, Manukau Institute of Technology, Auckland (Chair)

Dr Tony Barker, Clinical Director/Chemical Pathologist, LabPlus, Auckland District Health Board, Auckland

Nigel Cann, General Manager Manufacturing, Australian Vinyls Corporation Ltd, Victoria, Australia

Miriam Dean QC, Barrister, Auckland

Richard Dimmock, Company Director, Providence Investments Ltd, Auckland

Dr John Hay, ESR Kenepuru Science Centre, Porirua

Dr Richard Janes, Company Director, Wellington

Sarah Kennedy, Managing Director, Healtheries of NZ Ltd, Auckland

Graeme Robertson, Chief Executive Officer, Lincoln Ventures, Christchurch.

Photo of Testing Laboratory Council members. Standing (left to right): Dr John Hay, Dr Tony Barker, Dr Llew Richards, Dr Richard Janes, Nigel Cann, Graeme Robertson, Richard Dimmock. Seated: Sarah Kennedy, Dr Geoff Page (Chair), Miriam Dean.